

2016 High School Graduates!

Joy Bauer

Bettendorf High School.
 Scott Community College before transferring for a more specialized education.
 Memorable was Youth15 last summer in Orlando. It enlarged her view of where God may want her.
 Her future is still being formed. The only thing that seems likely will be doing something that does not happen in a cubicle.

Andrea Hale

Bettendorf High School
 University of Iowa, Major in Elementary Education
 Going with the youth group on mission trips & helping with VBS
 Wants to be an elementary teacher in hopes to positively impact many lives

Jack Moran

Davenport Central High School
 University of Iowa and studying environmental sciences
 Some fond memories of Asbury were: preschool, confirmation, backpack ministry, getting to know the people of Asbury over the years
 Dream for the future is to make a positive impact on the environment with my education at UI

Stephen Pim

Pleasant Valley High School.
 Black Hawk College
 My fondest memory of Asbury is my confirmation class. We had a great group and I made good friends in that class.
 I will play baseball at Black Hawk. I hope to continue to play as long as I can, and someday, coach.

Kyle Berst

Pleasant Valley High School
 Attend Central College
 Confirmation was a very fond memory of mine
 My dream is to attend medical school after college

Sam Hall

Bettendorf High School
 University of Iowa, majoring in Informatics
 Youth Group and making new friends. Favorite part about Youth Group was going on the mission trips around the Midwest and volunteering at the senior homes.
 Hope to travel the world and visit countries all around.

Amber Jerson

Bettendorf high school
 Cornell College to major in Spanish and sociology and anthropology and minor in civic engagement
 All of the amazing friendships and bonds I have made over the years during the mission trips
 Future - work for a non profit in Central or South America

Owen Weber

Bettendorf High School
 University of Iowa plans to major in Biochemistry
 Memory of Asbury was his confirmation mission trip to St. Paul, MN
 To become a Patent Lawyer

Alyssa Brown

Pleasant Valley High School
 Attend Scott Community College, then Iowa State for design.
 Helping out with VBS has been a delight and joy.
 I see my future in an environment involving design.

Emily Hammer

Pleasant Valley High School.
 Iowa State for a double major in retail management/marketing with a minor in French.
 I loved getting to be a lead singer during VBS and helping out in the third grade classroom.
 Hopefully, I can be the CEO or board member of a clothing company and push them towards more progressive policies, donating clothes to homeless shelters.

Sarah Rasing

Bettendorf High School
 University of Northern Iowa, Major: English-Teaching, Middle Level Education Dual Major-Teaching, Minor: Theatre
 One of my favorite things I am involved with at Asbury is the Card Ministry. Making beautiful cards with wonderful women. I also enjoyed leading games at VBS with my family.
 High school or Middle school English Teacher

Caleb Wachel

Assumption High School
 Beloit College in Wisconsin, play football and major in biochemistry.
 Jack Moran and I found a cat in the back of the church doing confirmation and each week we all would check on the cat, feed it etc. We named him Gloves.
 He was our mascot during confirmation for those 9 months.
